CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Cathedral of St. Augustine. Revs. Michael Maher, J. Nunan, D.D., Wm. J. Hughes, ass'ts. The Parish of St. Augustine, by far the oldest in the land, has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is its unique privilege to have a full set of records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule.

AMERICAN COLLEGES IN EUROPE

PONTIFICAL COLLEGE OF THE UNITED STATES, ROME, ITALY. Founded by Pius IX. and formally opened by him Dec. 8, 1859. By apostolic letters "Ubi primum" Leo XIII. ranked it among the Pontifical Colleges, with corresponding privileges, Oct. 25, 1884.

It is open to ecclesiastical students only, who desire to follow the courses in humanities, philosophy and theology at the Urban College of the Propaganda.

Those who having partially or entirely completed their theological course in this or other Seminaries, are offered excellent opportunities for pursuing special studies and becoming acquainted with the practice of Roman Congregations. Very Rev. Thomas F. Kennedy, Rector; Rev. J. P. Farrelly, Spiritual Director. Number of students, 74.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY AT LOUVAIN, BELGIUM. The American College of the Immaculate Conception was founded in 1857 by several American Bishops, with the hearty consent of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Mechlin and all the Bishops of Belgium. The Holy See approved and blessed the new Institution. The rules and constitutions have been approved by the S. Cong. de Prop. Fide and confirmed by Pope Leo XIII., in June 1893.

The object of the college is twofold: a) to educate for the priesthood young Americans who are sent by their Bishops to Louvain because of their special talents and aptitudes for theological studies (see 3rd Balt. Council, No. 185); b) to prepare zealous and able young men from Belgium and adjacent countries for the most arduous missions in the many dioceses of America.

Only such students are admitted who have finished a complete course of philosophy at a Catholic College. Should an American student desire to study philosophy in Belgium, the Rector would obtain his admission to a "petit Séminaire", where he could at the same time acquire a perfect knowledge of the French language.

The students follow a three years' course of theology at the Catholic University; those who have succeeded best in their elementary theological studies may be admitted, with the consent of their Ordinary, to the higher studies and finally to the various degrees in theology or canon law.

The annual terms for board and tuition, including matriculation fee, is $145, payable in advance, in three installments: October 1st, January 1st, April 1st.

For further informations apply for prospectus.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Institution, as well as other American Prelates who desire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year which begins on the 8th of October.

It is earnestly hoped that the Rt. Rev. Bishops of America will employ their influence to secure scholarships for the Institution by zealous and charitable persons.

Rector: Very Rev. Dr. Jules Canon De Becker, J.U.D.; Vice-Rector: Very Rev. Peter Masson, professor of Liturgy and Pastoral theology; Spiritual Directors: Rev. A. Vermeersch, S.J., and Rev. J. Goossens, S.J.

The theological Faculty of the University at which the students attend lectures is composed of the following noted Divines: Dr. J. De Becker, Dean and professor of Canon law; Dr. O. Dignant, secretary and professor of Moral theology; Dr. J. Forget, professor of General Dogma and Arabic literature; Dr. M. De Baets, professor of special Dogma; Dr. E. Reusens, professor of christian archeology; Mgr. F. Moulart, J.C.D., professor of Civil and Ecclesiastical law; Dr. A. Van Hoonacker, professor of Hebrew and Biblical Antiquities; Dr. A. Cauchie, professor of Church History; Dr. P. Ladeuze, professor of Sacred Scripture and Patrology; Dr. L. Becker, professor of fundamental Dogma; Dr. A. Bondroit, professor of Fundamental Theology; Dr. A. Van Hove, professor of Church history and Canon law.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded in Lyons in 1821, for the purpose of assisting, by prayers and alms, the Catholic Missionaries who are engaged in preaching the Gospel in heathen and non-Catholic countries. The Association contributes, at the present time, toward the support of 325 Dioceses, Vicariates and Prefectures Apostolic in Africa, Asia, Oceanica, America and the non-Catholic countries of Europe. Since its foundation it has given to the various Missions of the United States over $5,800,000.

This Association has been highly recommended by the Sovereign Pontiffs who have enriched it with many and precious indulgences, and Bishops of all countries have exhorted the faithful to join it. At a meeting held in Washington, in October 1897, the Most Reverend Archbishops passed a resolution to have the Association established in every parish in the States. The conditions of membership are: 1. The daily recitation of the "Our Father", "Hail Mary" and the invocation, "St. Francis Xavier, pray for us"; 2. A contribution of five cents monthly, or sixty cents a year. Every band of ten associates receives a complimentary copy of the "Annals of the Propagation of the Faith", a bi-monthly publication, in which letters from missionaries and news of the missions are recorded, together with the annual report of the receipts and distribution of the alms received. The "Annals" are published in 13 different languages.

The affairs of the Association in the United States are in charge of the Fathers of St. Sulpice, St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md.: Very Rev. A. Magnien, S.S., D.D. and Rev. J. Frerl, D. C. L., Directors.

The Association has been incorporated under the legal title of "The Society for the Propagation of the Faith", of Baltimore City. The trustees are:

This organization is for the development of the spirit of regularity and piety in the private life of the priest,

THE ASSOCIATION OF THE HOLY CHILDHOOD FOR THE REDEMPTION OF THE CHILDREN OF INFIDELS.

This beautiful Association was established at Paris in the year 1843 by the Right Rev. Chas. de Forbin-Jansen, Bishop of Nancy in France. Its object is twofold: 1st) To rally around the Infant Jesus our little Christian Children from their tender years, so that with their increasing years and strength and in imitation of Jesus their master, they may practice true Christian Charity, in view of their own perfection. 2nd) That by the practice of true Christian Charity and enduring liberality those same little Christian Children may cooperate in saving from death and sin, the thousands and thousands of children that in pagan countries like China are cast away and neglected by their parents, and die unbaptized, to procure holy Baptism for those abandoned little ones, and, should they live, to make of them craftsmen, teachers, doctors or priests who all in turn will spread the blessings of the Christian religion amongst their countrymen,—such is the further object of the Association.

From its very foundation the Bishops and the Holy See have also solemnly approved of the Association. By a Brief of the 18th of July, 1856, Pope IX. raised it to the dignity of a Canonical Institution, gave it a Cardinal Protector, and recommended it to all the Catholic Bishops to be introduced into their dioceses. His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII. blessed it, and in the Encyclical "Sancta Dei Civitas" of the 3rd of December, 1880, again recommended it to the Catholic Episcopate.

Besides the Association has been enriched with many and precious indulgences. The general agency of the Association is in Paris (Rue du Bac, 146). Its President is at present Msgr. Demimuid. In the different countries there are Central Directors, who deliver all contributions to the General Agency which then takes in hand the distribution of the money.

Children can become members of the Association immediately after the reception of Holy Baptism, until the age of 12; after the age of 12 years (after their first holy communion) all persons can belong to the Association, gaining all its indulgences for the rest of their lives; it is however necessary at the age of 21, in order to still share in the indulgences of the Association to become at the same time a member of the Lyons' Association for the Propagation of the Faith.

In order to be a member or participant, it is necessary to: 1st) recite every day a "Hail Mary", with the invocation "Holy Virgin Mary, pray for us and for the poor pagan children"; 2nd) to give each month a contribution of one cent, or 12 cents a year. Every group of 12 members is entitled to one copy of the Annals of the Holy Childhood Association, a quarterly publication, in which letters from missionaries and news of the missions are published, together with the annual report of the receipts and distributions of the alms received.

The affairs of the Association in the United States are in charge of the Fathers of the Holy Ghost. The present Director is Rev. John Willms, C.S.Sp., Pittsburg, Pa.

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY FOR NEGRO MISSIONS

(Incorporated Laws of Md., 1898.)

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY.

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY, which has so much to do with the evangelization of the American colored people, is composed of clergy and laity. Its clergy are secular priests ordained in the same way as the diocesan clergy ad titulum missionis. The priests of St. Joseph are essentially missionaries; hence they take the title of their ordination from the missions, and like all sons of the Propaganda, must look to the missions for support.

The Fathers of the St. Joseph's Society for Colored Missions have under their charge the Epiphany Apostolic College, St. Joseph's Seminary for Colored Missions, Baltimore, Md., and St. Joseph's College for Negro Cathecists, Montgomery, Ala.

They conduct Missions in the archdioceses of Baltimore and New Orleans, the dioceses of Galveston, Little Rock, Mobile, Nashville, Natchez, Richmond, Wilmington.

The Fathers also publish in the interest of their mission a quarterly review in English, French and German "The Colored Harvest", subscription 25 cents.

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS

(Office: 941 F Street, Washington, D.C.)

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs. It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, recognized as an Institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of seven Prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Most Rev. P. L. Chapelle, Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena, and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of St. Cloud. In 1894 this Committee was dissolved, and the Bureau as then constituted was superseded by a new corporation chartered by an Act of the Assembly of the State of Maryland—the incorporators being His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, and its corporate name being "THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS". The new organization succeeded to all the rights and powers of, and all the property held by, the old incorporation; has adopted laws for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as its officers the following:

REV. WM. H. KETCHAM, Director.
VERY REV. E. R. DYER, SS., D.D., Treasurer.

Dr. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. Dr. Kain, Archbishop of St. Louis, Mo.

All remittances and all communications concerning the business of the Commission, should be addressed to the secretary, Very Rev. E. R. Dyer, D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, Yonkers P. O., N. Y.

The Commission has made it a rule to consider only such applications as are received through the Most Rev. and Rt. Rev. Ordinaries and to put at their disposal whatever allotments may be made for the works under their charge.

It will always, be taken as a matter of course, that a mission which does not apply for assistance does not expect a share of the funds. Application must be made every time an appropriation is desired.

THE XAVERIAN BROTHERS.

The Congregation of the Xaverian Brothers was founded chiefly for America in 1839, by Theodore James Ryken, a teacher by profession. During the early part of his life, he visited this country and seeing the great need of Catholic instructors, he resolved to found a society of young men who would devote their lives to Christian education.

In order to find fit subjects, he returned to Europe and laid the foundation of his great work, in Bruges, an important city of Catholic, Belgium.

Before commencing the intended Institute, he visited the reigning Pontiff, at that time, Gregory XVI., disclosed his intentions and obtained the approbation and blessing of the Holy Father.

Fifteen years after the formation of the new society the first mission was introduced into the United States by Most Rev. Bishop Spalding, the late Archbishop of Baltimore, at that time, Bishop of Louisville. In that city the Brothers took charge of two schools and there their chief college and house of studies for the west is situated.

There principal duties of the Brothers are:

1. The management of Colleges, Academies, Parochial, Industrial, Night and Sunday schools.
2. They superintend home's for poor boys.
3. They assist the Rev. Pastors in several ways: by preparing boys for First Holy Communion and Confirmation: by attending to the Sanctuary boys; by forming Sodality for young men and students and by instructing junior choirs.

At present the Brothers have houses in the following places:

SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

MOTHERHOUSE at St. Joseph's Academy, Emmitsburg, Md. Mother Margaret O'Keefe, supr.

The Sisters of Charity (Filles de la Charité, Daughters of Charity) were founded in Paris in 1633, by St. Vincent de Paul, aided by Mademoiselle Louise le Gras. As their name indicates, the Sisters take charge of works of charity in general. The members are not bound by perpetual vows, but on March 25, of each year take the simple vows of religion. They are governed by a Mother General, who resides in Paris, and is subject to the Superior-General of the Priests of the Congregation of the Mission.

The Sisters of Charity of the United States were founded by the saintly Mother Eliza A. Seton. This devoted lady was the daughter of Protestant parents in whose faith she was educated. She received the gift of faith in 1805 at Rome, Italy, and on June 2, 1809 she established at Emmitsburg, Md., a community which she called "St. Joseph's Sisterhood". Her first companions were Misses Cecilia O'Conway and Mary Murphy, both of Philadelphia. Mother Seton and her ecclesiastical superiors having determined to found the community on the plan of the Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul, applied to France for Sisters to aid the undertaking. The Mother General consented and four sisters were deputed to come to America and take charge of the work; but their journey was prevented by the government of Bonaparte, which refused to permit the Sisters to leave France. A copy of the French rule was however, obtained, and the sisters began to observe it with certain modifications suited to the circumstances of the country. The saintly Mother Seton passed to her reward January 4, 1821. In 1850 a union was effected between St. Joseph's Sisterhood at Emmitsburg, and the Daughters of Charity in Paris, and on December 3, 1850 the Community of Emmitsburg assumed the habit worn by the Sisters in France.

When this branch numbered 33 Sisters it seemed desirable to form an independent and separate Community of which Sister Elisabeth Boyle, who succeeded Sister Rose was chosen first Mother superior in 1846. (The Academy of Mt. St. Vincent dates its origin from Sept. 13, 1847.) Mother M. Rose, the present Mother superior is the seventh Mother.

SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD OF ANGERS.

MOTHERHOUSE at Angers, France. Introduced in this Country by Right Rev. B. J. Flaget, D.D. First establishment in Louisville, Ky., 1843.

Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia Pelletier, the first Superior-General of this Congregation, entered the community of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity of Refuge at Tours, France, in 1815. She was so well adapted for the work among the penitents, that before she had completed her twenty-first year, she was put in charge of them. A few years later she was elected prioress of the Monastery, the Pope granting the required dispensation, as she had not attained the canonical age. In 1827 she was invited by the Clergy of Angers to take charge of a Refuge, which they were founding on the bequest of a pious widow, and having obtained due authorization from the ecclesiastical authorities, she accepted the call. The House being successfully established, she undertook the reorganization of the Order to further its missionary development. Originally each house was an independent institution. There was no centre for consultation, no source whence weak and struggling foundations might claim aid and sympathy, no way of distributing and interchanging the religious so as to place each sister in the position where the Institute would obtain from her the best service. Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia's plan was the centralization of the Order, Angers should be made the Motherhouse, and the general government of all houses, which should be founded from Angers, should be entrusted to the Superior of said house. She won for her plan the approval and approbation of the Bishop of Angers and other churchmen, also the substantial aid of several wealthy noblemen, as the means which she proposed to realize her plan were eminently practical and her disinterestedness and rectitude of intention evident. In 1835 the Pope approved of the change in the government of the Order, and also the new title Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers, and declared that the Religious were to continue to enjoy all the rights and privileges granted to the ancient Order of the Refuge. The growth of the Order of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers was so rapid and extensive, that in 1857 Pope Pius IX. issued a Decree dividing the Order into Provinces. The Provincial Superiors as well as the Local Superiors to be appointed by the Superioress General, residing at Angers. In the United States there are five Provinces, viz.: St. Louis, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and St. Paul. The object of the order is to afford a retreat for unfortunate females who wish to reform, without respect to nation or creed.

MOTHERHOUSE at Paris, France.

CONVENT at 114-116 E. 86th st., New York City. Established May 1892. Mother Mary of St. Bernard, supr.

The work of the Sisters is to visit and nurse the sick poor in their own houses, and to give religious instruction to children and adults. The Sisters have no schools, but receive children on their leaving the public schools in the afternoon for catechism classes, both for boys and girls; have Sunday and evening meetings for older girls engaged in business houses, also for mothers of families. On weekdays both girls and women do needlework at the meetings; materials are provided for them, and the clothing there made, is given to them. Many converts, or Catholics whose religious education is deficient, are instructed individually and prepared for the Sacraments. The same work is done for the colored people and for the Italians. All the works are undertaken with the view of helping the Souls in Purgatory, not only by prayers, but also by works of mercy spiritual and corporal; and they are entirely gratuitous, nothing being accepted either from the sick poor, the parents of children instructed, or their friends. The Sisters depend upon Divine Providence, and the free gifts of those whose devotion to the Holy Souls prompts them to aid a Society devoted to work for the living and the dead. Legal title: The Society of the Helpers of the Holy Souls of the City of New York. Sisters, 16.

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH (of Carondelet).

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in the city of Puy, France, in the year 1650, and rapidly developed in most of the chief cities of the land, until the French revolution of 1789 demolished all, or nearly all, Convents. After the subsequent restoration of religion and religious institutions, the surviving members reassembled, first at St. Etienne, and later at Lyons, where by the wish and sanction of ecclesiastical authority the Institute was reorganized and a Central House established which became the principal Motherhouse of the Congregation. In 1836, six Sisters from Lyons, at the request of Bishop Rosati of St. Louis, came to found a House in Carondelet, near St. Louis, which became the chief Motherhouse in this country. When in 1860 the constitutions were presented to the Holy See for approbation, the various Houses of the Institute which up to that time had been considered diocesan, were required to unite under a general government and the jurisdiction of the Motherhouse of Carondelet.

The approval of the Holy See having been obtained in 1867, the Congregation rapidly developed and counts at present about 130 religious, distributed among 98 establishments. VISITATION NUNS.

The Order of the Visitation was founded at Annecy (Savoy) in 1610 by St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva, and St. Jane Frances Fremiot de Chantal, for the purpose of opening a Retreat to persons desirous of the religious life, too infirm in body to enter an austere Order; there to sanctify themselves by prayer and good works, and to help the salvation of souls, using for that all the means in their power, as prayer, self-sacrifice, charity of any kind compatible with the Rule; retreats and spiritual exercises offered to souls desirous of greater perfection. The intention of the holy Bishop, was not, he says it expressly, to occupy his daughters with the education of young girls, nevertheless, he allowed some few in the monasteries, whose parents destined them to be formed more for solid piety than for the world; and this has been observed almost universally with the said conditions. The Monasteries of the Visitation although spread through all countries even during the life time of the Founder, have no Superior General, they are independent of each other, nevertheless the holy Bishop of Geneva gave them a bond of union, which he deemed stronger than human means. He wished all the Visitation Houses kept in an intimate union, by a mutual charity, and child-like confidence towards the Motherhouse at Annecy, whose duty it is in return for this to watch with a motherly love over the spiritual and temporal necessities, as well as the keeping up of the letter and the spirit of the Rule. Therefore, any house has the right to refer to Annecy in its troubles or difficulties, and each house moreover owes its assistance to the houses founded from it. Three Centuries testify to the wisdom of the holy Founder, by the perfect union and preservation of the primitive spirit in the 170 Monasteries existing at present throughout the world. The Visitation was introduced in America in 1799 when the first Monastery was established at Georgetown, D. C. At that time the needs of the country requiring all good Catholics to unite their common strength in the work of Christian education, the Visitation in America had from its first beginning to extend the simple concession of the Founder, making education the principal object of its existence. This naturally made it deviate from the original aspect of the Visitation of 1610.
